

MYERS INDUSTRIES, INC.

2020 Annual Meeting of Shareholders

Rules of Conduct

Welcome to the Annual Meeting of Shareholders of Myers Industries, Inc. In fairness to all participants and in the interest of an orderly and constructive meeting, the following Rules of Conduct will be enforced:

1. Only shareholders and their properly authorized proxies will be admitted to the meeting virtually. In addition, if you are a record holder, your name will be verified against the list of record holders as of the close of business on March 6, 2020 (“Record Date”), to be admitted to the meeting.
2. All attendees attending the meeting online must follow the instructions on how to connect, demonstrate proof of stock ownership and participate via the Internet found at www.virtualshareholdermeeting.com/MYE2020.
3. This meeting will follow the schedule set forth on the Agenda.
4. Only shareholders of record as of the Record Date or their duly authorized proxies are entitled to vote. You need not vote at this meeting if you have already voted by proxy. If you wish to change your vote or if you have not voted, please update your vote before the close of the polls.
5. Failure to have timely submitted a proposal will cause it to be out of order and bar it from consideration. Such proposals may be submitted in advance of our next annual meeting of shareholders.
6. Only shareholders of record as of the Record Date or their duly authorized proxies are entitled to address this meeting. No one may address this meeting unless recognized by the Myers Industries, Inc.’s President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael McGaugh, who serve as Chairperson of the meeting.
7. If you wish to be recognized, please follow the instructions found online for participating in the virtual meeting. You should wait for the appropriate question period for the Agenda item that you wish to address. When recognized, please provide your name and city of residence, state whether you are a shareholder or hold the proxy of a shareholder, the number of shares you represent, and the nature of business you wish to discuss. If you hold the proxy of a shareholder, you should give the name of the shareholder represented.
8. All questions and comments must be directed to the Chairperson.
9. Unless a special arrangement has been made in advance, each speaker is limited to a maximum of two (2) questions. Unless a special arrangement has been made in advance, no shareholder will be permitted to submit more than two (2) questions.

10. Matters of individual concern are not proper subjects for this meeting; questions or comments must be of general shareholder interest, and must be limited to the relevant Agenda items. If a shareholder has a question that is of individual concern to a shareholder or otherwise not of concern to the shareholders generally, the shareholder may discuss the matter with an authorized officer of the Company after the meeting at some mutually convenient time.
11. The views of shareholders are welcome, but conducting the business set out in the Agenda will be paramount. The Chairperson of the meeting will rule as out of order, discussions that are, among other things:
 - Not related to the matters set forth in the Agenda or otherwise properly brought before the meeting;
 - Disorderly;
 - Repetitious statements already made by other persons; or
 - In furtherance of the speaker's personal or business interests.
12. Derogatory remarks, improper language or conduct or references otherwise in bad taste will not be permitted. If violations of these Rules of Conduct occur, the Chairperson of the meeting may remove the violator from the meeting or may implement an abbreviated meeting procedure and promptly adjourn the meeting, all at the discretion of the Chairperson of the meeting.
13. In order that the business of the meeting be accomplished in a timely manner, discussion of each Agenda item will be limited to a total of five (5) minutes, unless the Chairperson of the meeting determines otherwise.
14. The Chairperson of the meeting will decide all procedural issues regarding conduct of the meeting, including adjournment.
15. Attendees who fail to comply with these Rules of Conduct risk being removed from this meeting.
