

RULES OF CONDUCT AND PROCEDURE

We would like to welcome you to the 2020 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of SolarEdge Technologies, Inc. The meeting will follow the Agenda presented on the screen. After the adjournment of the formal meeting, we will take shareholders' questions related to the business of the Company for no longer than 30 minutes. In fairness to all shareholders in attendance and in the interest of maintaining an orderly meeting, we ask that you honor the following rules of conduct and procedures:

1. If you have already voted by proxy, there is no need to vote during the meeting. If you have not voted by proxy or if you have given written notice to the Company that you have revoked your proxy, please vote before the closing of the polls by clicking on the "vote here" button on your screen. No further voting will be permitted, considered or accepted by the Inspector of Elections after the closing of the polls.
2. For a shareholder proposal to be properly presented at the meeting, the proponent or their designated representative must be present at the meeting. Proponents for shareholder proposals will have two minutes to present their proposal. A clock will be visible to allow the proponent to keep track of his or her remaining time.
3. No one attending via the webcast or telephone is permitted to use any audio recording device.
4. If you would like to ask a question during the question and answer session, you may do so by entering your question to the virtual meeting platform.
5. So that all shareholders may have an equal opportunity to ask questions, each shareholder will be limited to one question. Please provide your name, address (city and state) and organization, and, if applicable, the specific proposal to which your question relates. In order to facilitate responses and discussion, all questions should be succinct and limited to one topic.
6. Subject to the above rules, questions from all shareholders are welcome and will be directed to the management team in the form they were submitted, except for questions which are:
  - a. Not relevant to the business of the meeting or the conduct of the Company's operations;
  - b. Substantially repetitious of questions or statements made by other shareholders;
  - c. Related to material non-public information including without limitation pending or threatened litigation;
  - d. Out of order or not otherwise suitable for the conduct of the meeting as determined by the Chairman or Corporate Secretary in their reasonable judgment; orRelated to personal grievances including without limitation customer support issues.
7. If there are any matters of individual concern to a shareholder and not of general concern to all shareholders, or if a question posed was not otherwise answered, such matters or questions may be raised separately after the meeting by contacting SolarEdge Investor Relations at investors@solaredge.com.
8. The Chair has sole discretion to rule on any of the foregoing rules and on all other matters related to the conduct of the meeting and the question and answer period.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENDANCE AND COOPERATION.
